

Mariko Yagisawa

Rebirth & Flow Co., Ltd. consulting partner /
Executive competence development Premap assessor /
Bilingual executive coach mentor

Office East LLC representative

After living and doing business around the world, she started a business of personal design maker (formal dress and Japanese clothing) , built the brand, worked as a business coach and psychological counsellor. And also she is engaged in human resources development in various industries such as medical, design and psychological counseling.

Since 2006, as her lifework, she has conducted psychotropic drug withdrawal counseling which was rare in Japan. The related books are still all-time best sellers in Amazon.

In recent years, she is working on executive coaching, capacity development assessment and consulting, global human resource development, and writing.

The policy of consulting is "the right person in the right place". Supported languages are Japanese and English.